SIGMA

We are few in number but strong in spirit. Sigma Sigma Sigma has recolonized at Florida Southern College. We are a new colony with new goals and ideals and we have the dream of building a new sorority . . . in the hopes that we may continue the Sigma tradition of loving, giving, and sharing . . .

Beta Phi, the local chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma is recolonizing. The chapter is starting over completely from a colony status in order that it may become more effective and growing organization on campus. The charter colony members were pledged last April by the National Chapter to become a nucleus for a new chapter. The colony will become a new chapter when about twenty girls are pledged. Florida Southern Panhellenic has been most effective in helping the new members achieve this colonization. In addition to a new chapter on campus, the recolonization of Sigma Sigma Sigma seems to have brought about a renewed and refreshed sense of Greek Unity.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

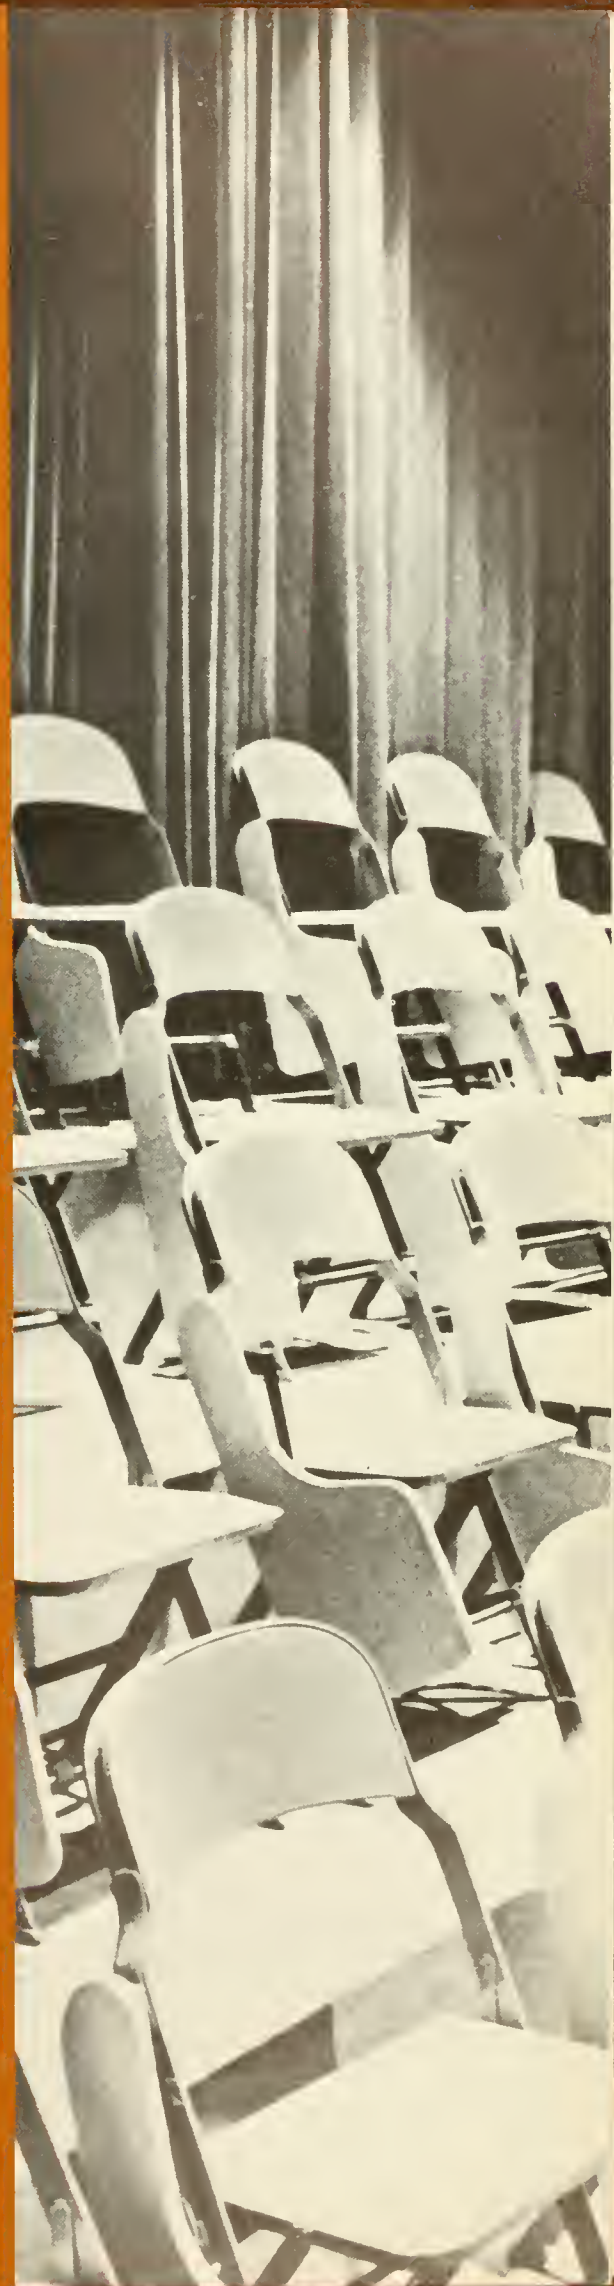

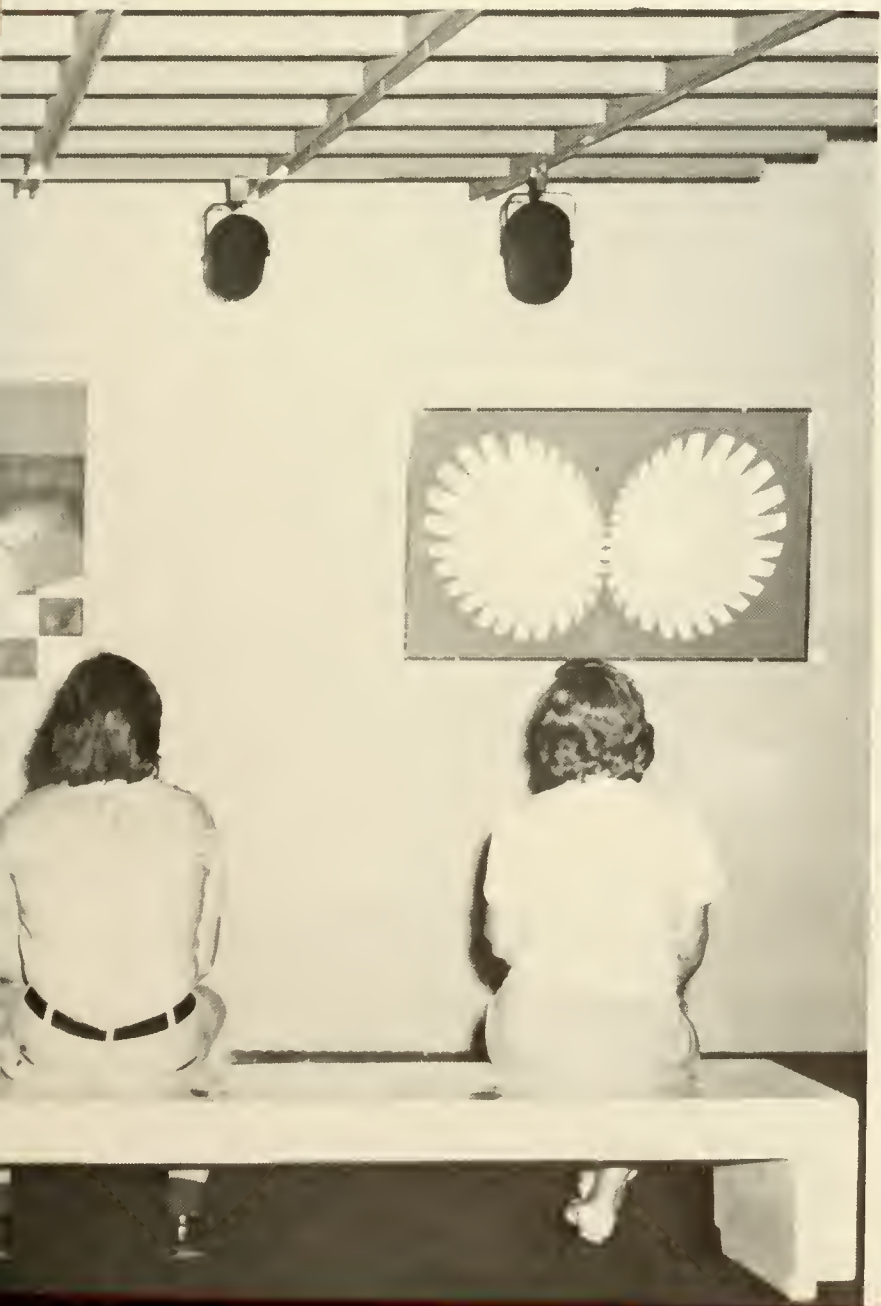

ACADEMICS

1971 INTERLACHEN DEDICATION

Warmth, sincerity, kindness, genuineness —
the traits of a lover;

A smile, a wave, a firm handshake,
calling you by name —
the mark of a friend;

Sermons that make you think,
or laugh, or squirm a little,
readiness to open an ear or a heart
to your problem,
joking before each convocation,
being wrapped up in a hot, red Santa Claus suit for the faculty's kids every year —
the characteristics of a minister and a chaplain.

Lover of mankind; Friend of all
he meets . . . and he meets them
all; Comedian and Counselor . . .
not always in that order;
Santa Claus; and preacher extraordinair.

You can't ask much more of a college chaplain, except maybe that his name be

Tom Price.
